Welcome to our September 2018 Newsletter!

ONE MAN, TWO GUVNORS'

Congratulations to Helen Fruin and the cast of 'One Man, Two Guvnors' on an excellent show week at the end of April at 'Victoria Hall' – what a fantastic launch for EHOS Players.

Cast and audience included all had such a laugh throughout the entire show and there was never a dull moment onstage or off. The audience only had amazing reviews to say about the show. Well done to everyone involved.!

CALLING FUTURE DIRECTORS

EHOS Players is an all new sub-division of EHOS, which will be putting on two plays a year to complement our existing musical theatre productions.

The show is set in the 1950's somewhere in middle America. When a mysterious motor cycle riding leather-jacket wearing, guitar-playing stranger rolls in, he helps small town to discover the magic of romance and power of rock and roll.

OUR HOUSE

As voted for by the members at our last open house, we are delighted to say that our September 2019 show will be 'Our House'

The critically acclaimed coming-of-age story featuring the hits of the iconic ska band Madness, will be at The Spotlight Theatre in September.

When an ill-conceived date lands London lad Joe Casey face to face with the police he faces a tough decision: to run or give himself up. As the story splits in two as we follow the fortunes, and misfortunes, of good Joe and bad Joe.

We are currently looking for directors and choreographers to pitch for both or 2019 shows, so if you would be interested in getting involved with either show contact our Chairman Matt Hudson through at info@ehos.co.uk or 07903-722507.

EHOS AGM

This year's AGM will be held on Wednesday 3rd of October at the Broxbourne United Reformed Church, Mill Lane, Broxbourne, EN10 7BQ.

The meeting will start at 8pm with cheese and wine being served from 7:30pm. Remember if pay your yearly membership on or before that evening it will be at a discounted cost of £15.

For the last 18 months we have been quite short handed on Committee so if you would like to get more actively involved in the running of the Society then we would love to hear from you!

We will be sending out an AGM pack shortly that will break down the various roles, however you do not need specialist skills or experience to join – just a passion to want to help shape the Society for the future.

If you would be interested or want to find out a bit more then contact our Chairman Matt Hudson at info@ehos.co.uk or 07903-722507.

COMMISERATIONS

After 2 years as News Letter Editor Joanne Hunter recently left committee. Thank you so much for your help Jo – meetings just are not the same without you and your sneaky G&T's. Hopefully we can welcome you back in the future 😊.

Sadly, Brad Boxall will be stepping down from the committee as Membership Sectary at this years AGM. On behalf of the committee we'd like to thank you for all your hard work, commitment and input. You stepped in during a very difficult time and your solid advice & help were an absolute asset.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations and good luck to Josh Borley on his new job! Josh will shortly be working at The Southbank Centre in London.

Thank you for everything you have done for EHOS, not just during our shows at The Spotlight Theatre, but your help with everything in general. Show week won't be the same without you & you will be sorely missed ... your un-humanly sweaty hugs however will not be!

STARTS IN THEIR EYES

We're very excited to announce we'll be putting on an EHOS version of the classic talent show 'Stars in their eyes'.

Everyone is welcome to enter; simply pick your favourite artist, put your name forward and perform your chosen song!

Each contestant would walk through the famous 'smoky' doors before instantly reappearing dressed up as their chosen star! The audience will vote on their favourite act and the winner will walk away with the trophy!

This is a pilot; the plan is to repeat the event next year but invite local Society's to do the same – each group sending their winner to a grand finale where they will compete to become AmDram Champion!

If you're interested in entering, then please let someone on the committee or social committee know or email info@ehos.co.uk and the acts performing will be announced at the AGM. Duets and band entries are welcome – there may even be a surprise performance for the committee!

It'll be first come first served on artists, so make sure you register your interest sooner rather than later.

The event will take place on the 22nd December at the Broxbourne United Reformed Church. Can't wait to see what acts you all come up with!
